-The K of C Coats for Kids campaign is about to get under way once again this September and will run until the end of October. With your support in the form of monetary donations, we have been able to exceed expectations in each of the past several years and hope to do so again this year. Should you choose to join us in this worthy cause, pass your monetary donation on to a Knight during the months of September or October or put it in the collection basket in an envelope marked: Coats for Kids and we, in turn, will pass on warm, winter coats to needy kids in our community.

Please be informed that the Parish Office will be closed for the month of August

For funeral services for Parishioners, please contact next local parish.
