SUPPORTING OUR FATHERS IN THE FAITH

Retired priests have spent years ministering to our parish communities, offering guidance, support, and the sacraments. Now it's our turn to show our appreciation and ensure they are cared for in their retirement years. Your support of the Special Collection for the Priest Benefit Fund on June 13/14 will directly assist retired priests of our diocese with their essential needs, ensuring they can live with dignity as vital members of our community. Learn more and donate today at www.peterboroughdiocese.org.

GRATITUDE

As you all know, I will be going back to Huntsville on the 24th of June. My coming up here to serve among you is a privilege for me. I am grateful to God and to Bishop Miehm, for the opportunity.

To you my wonderful people of St. Jerome, St. Alphonsus and Holy Angels Churches, I appreciate your unwavering support more than words can express. Thank you for being nice and caring towards me. If I had to choose, I would like to stay, but I can't choose by myself. I will be thinking of you in the words of Apostle Paul "I thank my God, each time I think of you, and when I pray for you, I pray with joy."

As you prepare to welcome Fr Chuka Raphael Obiadi, SMMM, I am not in doubt that you will give him the necessary assistance he may need. And may the God almighty bless you and be with you all forever. Amen.

Fr Cyprian Ijezie

Praying for our Friends and Family

Let us call to mind and include in our prayers, those who are in need of God's aid and grace, especially Lawrence Brennan and Ron March.

Let us also remember those who have recently died, especially Jeff Whalen, Alana Painter, Bill McKee, Ellen Phillips and Wayne Bird and for those whom we continue to hold within the silence of our minds and hearts.

If you have someone you would like included in our Parish Prayer List, please let us know and we would be more than happy to add their names to the list above.

Liturgy notes – Gifts of bread and wine: If you are asked by a hospitality minister to bring the gifts of bread and wine to the altar, please say yes. I hope that everyone will take turns at participating in this way. Sometimes it will be a family, other times friends or coworkers, other times representatives of different parish groups, or just two people who happen to be attending Mass at the same time. The combination doesn't matter as much as the gesture. There is a deep symbolism in the act of bringing forth from the people of God the bread and wine to be consecrated.

Our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ, took ordinary bread and wine, and with his sacred hands, offered them up to God the Father, to become an everlasting sacrament of communion with God. You too, are asked to take ordinary bread and wine, and bring them to the altar to be consecrated. You are to be the hands (and feet) of Christ in the world, and when you take the bread and wine to the altar, we see in your action the hands of Christ bringing the world to the Father. It is a sign of all you have to offer: your sacrifices, made for family and friends and for the good of all. All your sacrifices are united to those of Christ as his Body and Blood are offered to the Father. Then, in God's great generosity, he gives back to you in Communion, not bread and wine, but the very Body and Blood of the divine Son of God, crucified for you on Calvary, and risen from the dead! You are fed the food for immortality, given back to you from what you have brought to the altar, so that you can become what you receive. Bringing bread and wine to the altar is a gracious act, rich in meaning. Please be eager to be the hands and feet of Christ if asked to make this sign visible for us at the Holy Mass. (©Padre Piccolo)
